Lynnae is an operations and marketing professional with over 12 years of experience. She has worked in graphic design, copywriting, branding and messaging as well as office and project management. At The Facade Group Lynnae is in charge of administrative functions as well as marketing initiatives and the creation of original marketing materials.

Lynnae graduated from the University of California, Berkeley with a BA in History. In her studies she focused on popular culture and its role in modern society. This sociological approach to history has influenced her marketing work greatly.

In a prior position, Lynnae contributed to an award winning website, designed materials that were subsequently published and distributed by the US Department of Energy, conceptualized and designed a "Green Wedding" tradeshow booth that was featured on the television show AM Northwest and took the lead on countless other marketing and operational projects. Lynnae is an active member of the environmental business community and worked in that sector for many years.
